who died 20th Feb. 1861 aged 1 year and 4 months A special flower transplanted to the garden of heaven Ah she’s like the stars by day unseen by normal eyes But beaming bright to wander down to music in the spires She was a child of death on earth In sin her life was given but on the cross Christ died for her and now she lives in heaven Sic transit gloria mundi [Thus passes the world’s glory]

How fair is the rose, what a beautiful flower the glory of April and May the leaves begin to fade in an hour they withered and died in a day So frail was the youth the beauty of Margaret Helen though she bloom’d and looked gay like a rose yet all our fond care to preserve her was vain time killed as fast as the rose.
And is she dead: Oh, no she lives, her mortal soul flies to heaven where she received that wonderful prize.
Then let us dry our mournful tears and gloomy last refrain in heaven our child she now appears and shall for ever last.

In cemetery paddock to the west of main cemetery next to fence and under a pine tree.
