The address of Mrs William GARDINER and her daughter Jessie Gibson GARDINER (Page 522 Line 12) is "Belleville" - now 350 Ryrie St Geelong.

From: Willingham A 1986 Geelong Region Historic Buildings Vol 2

The 9 room villa 'Belleville' was erected in 1870 for David Boswell Reid, from designs prepared by leading Geelong architects Davidson and Henderson. This two storey dichromatic brick residence is in the style of the picturesque gothic villa and enhanced height bay windows and ornamental carvings in Waurn ponds freestone. The interiors are innovatively detailed, with the iron balustrated staircase, plaster ceilings and billiard room (1874) of great interest. The front fence to Ryrie Street is notable and intact.

Subsequent owners William Gardiner 1881-1912 and R G McPhee 1912-1946.
